Section 4. Unlawful Housing Practices.

- (1) Unlawful housing practices: Sale or rental and advertising in connection therewith.

Except as provided in Section 5 hereof, it shall be unlawful and a discriminatory housing practice for an owner, or any other person engaging in a real estate transaction, or for a real estate broker, as defined in this ordinance, because of race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, sex, marital status, familial status, handicap or age:

- (a) To refuse to engage in a real estate transaction with a person or to otherwise make unavailable or deny housing to any person.
- (b) To discriminate against a person in the terms, conditions or privileges of a real estate transaction or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith.
- (c) To refuse to receive or to fail to transmit a bona fide offer to engage in a real estate transaction from a person.

- (d) To refuse to negotiate for a real estate transaction with a person.
- (e) To represent to a person that housing is not available for inspection, sale, rental or lease when, in fact, it is so available, or to fail to bring a property listing to such person's attention, or to refuse to permit him or her to inspect the housing.
- (f) To steer any person away from or to any housing.
- (g) To make, print, publish, circulate, post or mail, or cause to be made, printed, published or circulated, any notice, statement, advertisement or sign, or to use a form of application or photograph for a real estate transaction or, except in connection with a written affirmative action plan, to make a record or oral or written inquiry in connection with a prospective real estate transaction, which indicates directly or indirectly an intent to make a limitation, specification, or discrimination with respect thereto.
- (h) To offer, solicit, accept, use or retain a listing of housing with the understanding that a person may be discriminated against in a real estate transaction or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith.
- (i) To induce or attempt to induce any person to transfer an interest in any housing by representations regarding the existing or potential proximity of housing owned, used or occupied by any person protected by the terms of this ordinance.
- (j) To make any misrepresentations concerning the listing for sale or rental, or the anticipated listing for sale or rental, or the sale or rental of any housing in any area in the County of St. Johns for the purpose of inducing or attempting to induce any such listing or any of the above transactions.
- (k) To retaliate or discriminate in any manner against any person because of his or her opposing a practice declared unlawful by this ordinance, or because he or she has filed a complaint, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in any investigation, proceeding or conference under this ordinance.
- (l) To aid, abet, incite, compel or coerce any person to engage in any of the practices prohibited by the provisions of this ordinance, or to obstruct or prevent any person from complying with the provisions of this ordinance, or any conciliation agreement entered into thereunder.
- (m) By canvassing to compel any unlawful practices prohibited by the provisions of this ordinance.
- (n) Otherwise to deny to, or withhold, any housing accommodations from a person.
- (o) To promote, induce, influence or attempt to promote, induce or influence by the use of postal cards, letters, circulars, telephone visitation or any other means, directly or indirectly, a property owner, occupant, or tenant to list for sale, sell, remove from, lease, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any housing by referring as a part of a process or pattern of indicating neighborhood unrest, community tension, or fear of racial, color, religious, nationality or ethnic change in any street, block, neighborhood or any other area, to the race, color, religion, neighbors, tenants or other prospective buyers of any housing.
- (p) To place a sign or display any other device either purporting to offer for sale, lease, assignment, transfer or other disposition or tending to lead to the belief that a bona fide offer is being made to sell, lease, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of any housing that is not in fact available or offered for sale, lease, assignment, transfer or other disposition.

(2) Unlawful Housing Practices: Financing

It shall be unlawful and a discriminatory housing practice for any lending institution, to deny a loan or other financial assistance to a person applying therefor for the purpose of purchasing, constructing, improving, repairing or maintaining housing, or to discriminate against such person in the fixing of the amount, interest rate, duration, or other terms or conditions of such loan or other financial assistance, because of the race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, sex, marital status, familial status, handicap or age of such person or of any person associated with such person in connection with such loan or other assistance, or of the present or prospective owners, lessees, tenants or occupants of the housing in relation to which such loan or other financial assistance is to be made or given; provided, that nothing contained in this subsection shall impair the scope or effectiveness of the exceptions contained in Section 5 of this ordinance.

SECTION 5. Exemptions and Exceptions.

1. Nothing contained in Section 4 hereof shall prohibit a religious organization, association, or society, or any nonprofit charitable or educational institution or organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization operated, supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization, association, or society, from limiting or from advertising the sale, rental or occupancy of housing which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the same religion, or from giving preference to such persons. Nor shall anything in this ordinance prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes, provides lodgings which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental or occupancy of such lodgings to its members or from giving preference to its members.

2. Nothing in Section 4 hereof, other than subsection (g) of subsection (1) thereof, shall apply to:

- (a) Any single-family house sold or rented by an owner: provided, that such private individual owner does not own more than three such single family houses at any one time; provided, further, that in the case of the sale of any such single family house by a private individual owner not residing in such house at the time of such sale or who was not the most recent resident of such house prior to such sale, the exemption granted by this subsection shall apply only with respect to one such sale within any twenty-four month period; provided further, that he does not own any interest in, nor is there owned or reserved on such owner's behalf, under any express or voluntary agreement, title to or any rights to all or a portion of the proceeds from the sale or rental of, more than three such single-family houses at any one time; provided, further, that the owner sells or rents such housing (1) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting housing, or of any employee or agency of any such broker, agent, salesperson, or person and (2) without the publication, posting, or mailing, after notice, of any advertisement or written notice in violation of subsection (g) of subsection (1) of Section 4 hereof, but nothing in this provision shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstracters, title companies, and other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer the title; or
- (b) Rooms or units in housing containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living quarters as such owner's residence, provided that the owner sells or rents such rooms or units (1) without the use in any manner of the sales or rental services of any real estate broker, agent, salesperson, or of such facilities or services of any person in the business of selling or renting housing, or of any employee or agency of any such broker, agent salesperson, or person and (2) without the publication, posting or mailing, after notice in violation of subsection (g) of subsection (1) of Section 4 hereof, but nothing in this provision shall prohibit the use of attorneys, escrow agents, abstracters, title companies, and other such professional assistance as necessary to perfect or transfer the title.

3. For the purpose of this subsection (2) a person shall be deemed to be in the business of selling or renting housing if:

- (a) He has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as principal, other than in the sale of his own personal residence, in providing sales or rental facilities or sales or rental services in three or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any housing or any interest therein; or
- (b) He has, within the preceding twelve months, participated as agent, other than in the sale of his own personal residence, in providing sales or rental facilities or sales or rental services in two or more transactions involving the sale or rental of any housing or any interest therein; or
- (c) He is the owner of any housing designed or intended for occupancy by, or occupied by, five or more families.

3. Nothing in Section 4 hereof shall be construed to:

- (a) Bar any person from restricting sales, rentals, leases or occupancy, or from giving preference, to persons of a given age for bona fide housing intended solely for the elderly or bona fide housing intended solely for minors.
- (b) Make it an unlawful act to require that a person have legal capacity to enter into a contract or lease.
- (c) Bar any person from advertising or from refusing to sell or rent any housing which is planned exclusively for, and occupied exclusively by, unmarried individuals to unmarried individuals only.
- (e) Bar any person from advertising or from refusing to sell or rent any housing which is planned exclusively for, and occupied exclusively for married couples without children or from segregating families with children to special units of housing.
- (f) Bar any person from refusing a loan or other financial assistance to any person whose life expectancy, according to generally accepted mortality tables, is less than the term for which the loan is requested.

SECTION 6. ADMINISTER AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board of County Commissioners to appoint.

The authority and responsibility for administering this ordinance shall be vested in the Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, Florida, who shall appoint an administrator.

(2) General Powers and Duties.

The administrator shall:

- (a) Receive written complaints as hereinafter provided in Section 7 relative to alleged unlawful acts under this ordinance when a complainant seeks the administrator's good offices to conciliate.
- (b) Upon receiving written complaint, make such investigations as the administrator deems appropriate to ascertain facts and issues.
- (c) Utilize methods of persuasion, conciliation, and mediation or information adjustment of grievances.
- (d) Establish, administer or review programs at the request of the Board of County Commissioners and make reports on such programs to the Board of County Commissioners.
- (e) Bring to the attention of the Board of County Commissioners items that may require the Board of County Commission's notice or action to resolve.

- (f) Render to the attention of the Board of County Commissioners annual written reports of his activities under the provisions of this ordinance along with such comments and recommendations as he may choose to make.
- (g) Cooperate with and render technical assistance to federal, state, local and other public and private agencies, organizations and institutions which are formulating or carrying on programs to prevent or eliminate the unlawful discriminatory practices covered by the provisions of this ordinance.

(3) Determination of Probable Cause.

If after fully processing the complaint in the manner hereafter provided, the administrator determines that there is probable cause to believe that there has been a violation of the provisions of this ordinance, he shall refer the matter, along with the facts he has gathered in his investigations, to the proper county, state or federal authorities for appropriate legal action.

(4) Promulgation of Forms and Regulations.

The administrator shall promulgate, publish and distribute the necessary forms, rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 7. Complaints.

(1) A person who claims that another person has committed a discriminatory housing practice against him may report that offense to the administrator by filing an informal complaint within forty-five (45) days after the date of the alleged discriminatory housing practice and not later.

(2) The administrator shall treat a complaint referred by the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development or the attorney General of the United States under the Fair Housing Act of 1968, Public Law 90-284, as an informal complaint filed under subsection (1).

(3) An informal complaint must be in writing, verified or affirmed, on a form to be supplied by the administrator and shall contain the following:

- (a) Identity and address of the respondent.
- (b) Date of offense and date of filing the informal complaint.
- (c) General statement of facts of the offense including the basis of the discrimination (race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, sex, marital status, familial status, handicap or age).
- (d) Name and signature of the complainant.

(4) Each complaint shall be held in confidence by the administrator unless and until the complainant and the respondent(s) consent in writing that it shall be made public.

(5) Within fifteen (15) days after the filing of the informal complaint, the administrator shall transmit a copy of the same to each respondent named therein by certified mail, return receipt requested. Thereupon, the respondent(s) may file a written, verified informal answer to the informal complaint within twenty (20) days of the date of the receipt of the informal complaint.

(6) An informal complaint or answer may be amended at any time, and the administrator shall furnish a copy of each amended informal complaint or answer to the respondent(s) complaint, respectively, as promptly as practicable.

(7) The administrator shall assist complaints or respondents when necessary in the preparation and filing of informal complaints or answers or any amendments thereto.

(8) The administrator shall advise complainants of their rights and options provided in Section 760.34, Florida Statutes.

Section 8. Processing Complaints.

(1) Within thirty (30) days after the filing of an informal complaint, the administrator shall make such investigation as he deems appropriate to ascertain facts and issues. If the administrator shall deem that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation has occurred and can be resolved by conciliation, he shall attempt to conciliate the matter by methods of initial conference and persuasion with all interested parties such representatives as the parties may choose to assist them. Conciliation conferences shall be informal and nothing said or done in the course of the informal conference with the individuals to resolve the dispute may be public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding by either party without the written consent of both the complainant and the respondent(s). The administrator or employee of the administrator who shall make public any information in violation of this provision shall be deemed guilty of a violation of a county ordinance and shall be subject to penalty as set forth in Section 12 of this ordinance.

(2) If the parties desire to conciliate, the terms of the conciliation shall be reduced to writing in the form approved by the administrator and must be signed and verified by the complainant and respondent(s) and approved by the administrator. The conciliation agreement shall be for conciliation purposes only and shall not constitute an admission by any party that the law has been violated.

(3) If the administrator deems that there is not probable cause to believe that the alleged discriminatory housing practice has been committed, the administrator shall take no further action with respect to the alleged offense.

(4) If the administrator, with respect to any matter involves a contravention of this ordinance by failure to conciliate a complaint after the parties, in good faith, have attempted such conciliation; or determining that the violation alleged in the complaint cannot be resolved by conciliation, he shall notify both the complainant and the respondent(s) within thirty (30) days of the failure or the determination, and he shall proceed as provided in Paragraph (3) of Section 6 hereinabove.

Section 9. Additional Remedies.

The procedure prescribed by this ordinance does not constitute an administrative prerequisite to another action or remedy available under other law. Further, nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to modify, impair or otherwise affect any right or remedy conferred by the Constitution or laws of the United States or the State of Florida, and the provisions of this ordinance shall be in addition to those provided by such other laws.

Chapter 10. Education and Public Information

The administrator may conduct educational and public informational activities that are designed to promote the policy of this ordinance.

Section 11. Untruthful Complaints or Testimony.

It shall be a violation of this ordinance for any person knowingly and willfully to make false or untrue statements, accusations or allegations in a complaint filed hereunder or to give false testimony concerning violations of this ordinance.

Section 12. Penalty.

Any person who violates any provisions of this ordinance shall be subject, upon conviction, to a fine up to but not exceeding the sum of Five Hundred and no/100 ($500.00) Dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 13. Severability.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held illegal, invalid or unconstitutional by the decision of any court or regulatory body of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions hereof. The Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, Florida hereby declares tht it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase hereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared illegal, invalid or unconstitutional, and all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 14.

St. Johns County ordinances No. 85-1 and 85-86 are repealed.

Section 15.

This ordinance shall take effect immediately upon receipt of official acknowledgement by the Office of the Department of State to the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners that same has been filed.

PASSED by the Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, State of Florida this 30th day of October, 1990.
