BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF ST. JOHNS COUNTY:

Section 1. Findings of Fact.

The Board of County Commissioners (the Board) makes the following findings of fact in support of this ordinance:

- A. Section 125.68, Florida Statutes, requires Florida counties to maintain a current codification of all ordinances.
- B. St. Johns County Ordinance No. 2001-56 provides that the St. Johns County Code shall consist of a systematic compilation of ordinances maintained in alphabetical order by the St. Johns County Clerk of Court (the Clerk).
- C. The purpose of codification is to provide access to the County's ordinances in such a way that members of the public can efficiently identify and directly access the full text of enacted ordinances.
- D. There are ordinances within the County Code that have been superseded by statute or that are outdated, redundant, or no longer in the public interest.
- E. The ordinances listed in Section 2 of this ordinance either have been superseded by statute or are outdated, redundant, or are no longer in the public interest.
- F. The ordinances listed in Section 3 of this ordinance have previously been repealed but are still listed in the County Code.

G. It is in the public interest to identify and repeal ordinances that have been superseded by statute or that are outdated, redundant, or no longer in the public interest in order to provide the public greater transparency and more efficient access to the County's ordinances.

Section 2. Repeal of Ordinances.

The Board repeals the following ordinances in their entirety:
