

RESOLUTION 87-82

WHEREAS, St. Johns County has entered into an agreement with Villages of Vilano for the construction of a pedestrian crossover of AIA at Vilano Beach, and

WHEREAS, St. Johns County has agreed to obtain all permits from Florida DOT, for construction and maintenance of the structure. The County must also agree to remove the structure if it becomes a safety hazard.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED this 28th day of APRIL, 1987 by the Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, Florida as follows:

1. St. Johns County will maintain the structure, and be responsible for its necessary repairs.
2. At any future time that the structure becomes unsafe, and the County is either unable or unwilling to repair the structure, St. Johns County will remove the structure at its expense.
3. St. Johns County will secure and keep in force the minimum insurance as provided in the Memorandum of Agreement. To the extent allowed by Florida law, St. Johns County will hold the Department Of Transportation harmless from any liability resulting from failure to maintain insurance in force as provided in the Agreement.
