

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the Cooperative Extension Service was formally created by act of Congress in 1914 for the purpose of "...diffusing among the people of the United States, useful and practical information on subjects in agriculture and home economics and subjects related thereto;" and,

WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature in 1915 officially concurred with that Legislation by establishing the Florida Cooperative Extension Program; and,

WHEREAS, all sixty-seven county governments have become partners in the operation of this university-based educational program designed to help people use research information to achieve their objectives; and,

WHEREAS, citizens of St. Johns County through their volunteer roles have guided and assisted the extension program to ensure its effectiveness and its responsiveness to the needs of the people of the county, and,

WHEREAS, on May 8, 1989, the Cooperative Extension Service will celebrate its Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of service to the people of the State of Florida;

NOW THEREFORE, I Harry Waldron, by the authority vested in me as chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, Florida, do hereby proclaim the week of May 8, 1989, as and hereby encourage the citizens of St. Johns County to recognize the Extension Service and its many volunteer workers for valuable services rendered to St. Johns County.

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION WEEK

Duly proclaimed and adopted in regular session, this 11th day of April, A.D., 1989, by the Board of County Commissioners.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
OF ST. JOHNS COUNTY, FLORIDA

BY: Harry Waldron
Chairman

ATTEST:

Carl Bond Mental
Clerk