

RESOLUTION NO. 91-146

WHEREAS, the goal of 4-H is to provide opportunities for the youth in St. Johns County in the areas of leadership, citizenship and personal development, and

WHEREAS, the St. Johns County 4-H program last year assisted some 2,800 young people between the ages of 8 and 18 years old in their four-fold development of Head, Heart, Hands and Health in organized clubs and special interest groups throughout the County, and

WHEREAS, 4-H programs involve "learning by doing" experiences in more than sixty subject-matter areas covering the broad diverse interests of young people in both urban and rural settings; and

WHEREAS, 4-H members receive inspiration and guidance from interested parents, professional extension workers, and volunteer adult and teen leaders.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of County Commissioners of St. Johns County, Florida, that the Board of County Commissioners, subscribing to the aim and objectives of 4-H, and recognizing the importance of this Youth Development Program of the Florida Cooperative Extension Service of the Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences do hereby proclaim the week of October 6-12, 1991 and earnestly suggest that all citizens take part in the County and community observances being planned so that they may more fully realize the many and varied contributions of 4-H to our County's progress.

4-H WEEK IN ST. JOHNS COUNTY

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 24th day of September, 1991.
