THE SPECIAL PRIVATE ATTORNEY-CLIENT MEETING WILL BE HELD IN THE BCC EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE ROOM ADJACENT TO THE AUDITORIUM

McCormack informed the Board that he needed advice concerning the St. Johns County versus Florida Agency of Health Care Administration, DOAH Case No. 12-2969, and said Florida Statute Section 286.011 allowed the Board to hold a private meeting in order to provide that advice.

Bennett, Michael D. Wanchick, Patrick F. McCormack, David M. Migut, and Janet Beason, Court Reporter.

(11:07 a.m.) McCormack requested that the Board move to the executive conference room. Morris recessed the Special meeting.

(11:35 a.m.) McCormack briefed the Board on the mediated settlement agreement between the County and the Florida Agency for Health Care Administration in Case No. 12-2926, then, gave a recommended settlement proposal, where the parties agreed that the appropriate amount for certification as the unpaid backlogged billing amount under the pertinent Florida Statute related to Medicaid payments due from St. Johns County, would be changed to $255,000 and from that amount, St. Johns County would be credited for all payments, which had been made by the County towards the backlogged billing amount through withholding by the Department of Revenue. McCormack said that as part of the proposed agreement, the County would coordinate with the Department of Revenue to assure the change in that certified amount would be implemented; then concluded that, as part of the proposed settlement agreement, the County would dismiss the action, Case No. 12-2926, and also agreed to dismiss, with prejudice, the County's participation in the Alachua County Dudek Case No. 2012-1328.
